3. It was learned on 25 August 1949 that the troops from the B40 FRIEDLAND military post were in the FRIEDLAND (L 54/0 31) area for maneuvers which were allegedly to last until late September or early October 1949.

The report indicates that the B40 FRIEDLAND units of the 6th Ads Mecz Div (Caire) were still in the FRIEDLAND training area at the end of August 1949. The statement that the troops were not to return to their military post until early October 1949 is given credence. No other sources have yet reported dates by which troops from other military posts in the quartering area of the Fourth Ads Mecz Army (Caire) were supposed to return from maneuvers. The 1,000 to 1,500 troops, reportedly located in the former Bradschuetzen Kaserne on 25 August 1949 (B), are believed to have been mostly recruits.
